NEW SEWAGE PLANT PLACED IN OPERATION

After numerous tests and adjustments, Gettysburg's new sewage disposal plant on Hanover St. at the borough line, is in full operation.

Without fanfare or ceremony of any kind, valves were turned, motors started, and the new primary and secondary treatment units began their functions Wednesday a few days less than 16 months after the general contractor, O. H. Hostetter Inc., Hanover, began work on the new plant, which when completed will cost approximately $360,000.

The 24-inch sewage line to the old plant was cut into the new units and sewage began flowing into the grit chamber, with its comminutor at one end which grinds up the solids, from this to the control building and thence through primary settling chambers, primary and secondary bi-filters, secondary settling chambers and digester.

Cleans Bad Spot
With the new plant now in full and complete operation, Rock Creek will cease being an open sewer, as it has virtually been for some time.

Gettysburg for many years was served only by a primary treatment plant which later became inadequate to the demands placed upon it, and much raw sewage found its way into Rock Creek, creating many times an objectionable odor and providing breeding places for hordes of mosquitoes.

Now sewage disposal engineers say this is all a thing of the past. All solids will be removed from the sewage and all liquids will be so treated that they will enter Rock Creek in a pure state.

The control room houses an office, meters for measuring and recording the flow of sewage entering the plant, locker room, shower room, master control switches for all motors, chlorinator, and laboratory for making tests. In the basement are also the pumps for sending (Continued on Page 13)

YANKEE PILOT SCORES HIT ON ICE-BOUND SHIP

SEOUL (AP)—Allied warplanes attacked a 5,000-ton Communist ship at Chinnampo on the Korean West Coast today and blasted Red supply routes and frontline positions, the U. S. Fifth Air Force reported.

An F80 Shooting Star jet pilot reported he scored two direct bomb hits on the Red vessel, ice bound in the harbor. Chinnampo is the port for the North Korean capital, Pyongyang.

Allied pilots scored regularly against small Communist boats and junks off both Korean coasts. The 5,000-ton, single-stack vessel was described by the Air Force as the biggest target.

No Action On Patrol
Deadly U. S. Sabre jets patrolled MIG Alley in Far Northwest Korea but failed to contact any Communist MIGs.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported only light patrol activity, along the frozen, 155-mile battlefield. In Tokyo, Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. Far East commander, announced that Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor will take over command of the U. S. Eighth army next Wednesday.

Taylor is touring South Korea with Gen. James A. Van Fleet, retiring U. N. field commander.

Down Plane In Darkness

SEOUL (AP)—Pilots of a radically new U. S. jet night fighter plane—the Skyraider—have shot down Red planes in Korea without even seeing them, the Marine Corps said today.

The new Marine plane, the Twin-jet F3D built by Douglas Aircraft Co., made a secret appearance in Korea several months ago. It is equipped with an intricate radar system which locks the plane on a target in darkness.

The U. S. Air Force announced it also has a new jet night fighter with the same equipment operating in Korea, but did not identify the aircraft. The Air Force plane is credited with shooting down one propeller-driven monoplane and probably destruction of several others.

RED CROSS TO HANDLE GIFTS FOR FLOOD AREA

Adams Countyans desiring to contribute money through the Red Cross for the relief of sufferers in the flood-stricken areas of Europe may leave these contributions with the local chapter, which will send them to embassy offices in Washington for transmission to Red Cross Legions in England, Belgium and Holland.

Eastern area headquarters, Alexandria, Va., notified chapter headquarters here today that 60,000 gift boxes and 50,000 school chests have already been sent to Europe. Through the Holland Relief Society and the League of Red Cross Societies of Rockefeller Center, N. Y., $100,000 has also been sent for relief. The Canadian Red Cross has authorized distribution of clothing from its warehouse in Geneva.

Money is needed more than food or clothing, according to Mrs. Maxwell D. Buckley, executive secretary of the Adams County chapter.

Inquiries from or concerning American citizens may be directed to the Office of Protective Services, Department of State, Washington, D. C. If cable service is desired, the inquirer must assume cost of outgoing and incoming cables, for which he will be billed. Otherwise, mail will be used.

The British Information Office, National Press Bldg., Washington, will accept inquiries on British nationals, regardless of source. No casualty lists are available yet, however. The same holds true of Netherlands Information Bureau and Belgian Embassy. Air Force headquarters in Washington is releasing notifications to next of kin as received, as quickly as possible to any place in the world.

Charge Former Tax Official With Income Tax Evasion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal tax agents said today Carroll E. Mealey failed to report $40,897 in income during the five years he headed the Alcohol Tax Division of the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Testifying before a House Ways and Means Subcommittee investigating revenue practices, the agents related locating $92,094.96 in income during the 1946-51 period when Mealey's income returns totaled $51,196.99.

The agents, Martin L. Webb of St. Louis and Charles H. Malmesbury of Philadelphia, resumed the witness stand as House tax fraud investigators probed deeper into Mealey's financial affairs as a one-time top tax official.

Mealey resigned, giving reasons of ill health, in the fall of 1951.

Here And There News Collected At Random

A thief or thieves made way with about a dozen of the better photographs of the pageant "Mr. Lincoln Comes To Gettysburg" during their public display at the Trinity Reformed Church educational building on Sunday, January 25. The photographs were identified as to their owners in large, bold handwriting on the back of each print.

The photographs had been loaned to Mrs. Madeleine Killalea who assisted with the pageant and had made every effort possible to secure a large collection of the photographs for viewing by those interested. A number of persons attended the meeting at the church and enjoyed viewing the pictures. Then some thief or thieves stole some of the choice prints.

Mrs. Killalea, incensed at such bold thievery, wrote the following letter of apology when she returned the remaining prints:

"I have put off returning these pictures as long as possible in the hope that the missing (Please Turn to Page 2)

DR. STOREK TO BE NEW DEAN OF WOMEN HERE

Dr. Martha Storek, administrative assistant at Endicott Junior College, Beverly, Mass., since 1951, will become the dean of women of Gettysburg College in June, it was announced by Dr. Walter C. Langsam, college president, in an address Tuesday evening in Chambersburg before the first meeting of the Franklin County Alumni Club.

Since the resignation of the former Miss Dorothy Gregg Lee shortly before her marriage last fall, Mrs. Lester O. Johnson has been serving as the acting dean of women. She took up her duties about November 15 and will continue through the current college year.

Dr. Storek served as the dean of women at Hartwick College, Oneonta, N. Y., from 1946 to 1951.

Has Ph.D. From Bryn Mawr

She received her A.B. degree from Connecticut College, New London, Conn., and did graduate work at Bryn Mawr Graduate School where she received her Ph.D. in 1946. She also served as an associate professor of German and English at Hartwick while doing her graduate work.

Eighty-two Franklin County alumni of the college heard Dr. Langsam discuss plans for the development of Gettysburg College. He was accompanied by Mrs. Langsam, C. Paul Cessna, alumni secretary at the college, and M. D. Bucklew, public relations officer at the college, were among the guests.

Dr. John P. Manges, Chambersburg, was elected president of the club and Marjory C. Little, Waynesboro, was chosen vice president.

Tells Of College Plans

Dr. Langsam reported on progress on the new chapel and that tentative plans call for dedication ceremonies in June and listed an additional men's dormitory as an urgent need. The president said the college will make an effort to enroll more girls, pointing out that the current student ratio is three men to one girl.

The alumni also were told of plans looking toward the establishment of a new department of sociology and social work, for a master's program, for the training of elementary school teachers and for mandatory record tests for all seniors. Establishment of the new sociology department is contingent upon finding a person to head that department, Dr. Langsam explained today.

Emmitsburg VFW Ambulance Carried 108 Patients In '52

One hundred eight patients were carried by the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance during 1952, according to a report made to the post.

Purchased and operated by Emmitsburg Memorial Post 6658, Veterans of Foreign Wars, it is the only volunteer ambulance in Frederick County, Md., despite the fact that the county is the largest in that state.

First placed in service in February 1948, the ambulance has been operated continuously with 75 per cent of the operational cost paid by the VFW which also provides volunteer crewmen to serve it.

Last year the borough of Emmitsburg donated $100 toward the maintenance fund, the first time that public funds have been used for the ambulance. The other ap

Red Data Stolen From U. S. Files

WASHINGTON (AP)—A State Department security officer testified today that his report on a "suspected Communist" employed by the department disappeared from secret files.

John E. Matson, special agent in the department's Division of Security and Investigation, was a witness before the Senate Investigations sub-committee headed by Sen. McCarthy R-Wis.

McCarthy has charged that State Department files have been "looted" of derogatory information concerning some employees, including some under fire in his Communists-in-government fight.

Matson did not identify the employee concerned in the missing report, except to say the man was attached to the U. S. Embassy in Ecuador.

Drop Rescue Troops

Dutch parachute troops were ordered dropped into the surrounded dry parts of the flood area to help in rescue efforts and to direct parachute drops of relief supplies. Rescue officials set up a "flying windmill" helicopter airlift from Woensdrecht Airport here to pick up people most in danger in stricken areas.

The Dutch Ministry of War offered an extra guilder a day (about 30 cents) and a pack of cigarettes to each of the 4,000 to 5,000 American soldiers who have been sent in to help in the rescue work. But Gen. Manton S. Eddy, commander of U. S. Army Forces in Europe, asked that the money and cigarettes be turned over to the national relief fund.

Although Britain herself is staggering under heavy flood damage in the southeast, British troops and helicopters have been sent to help stricken Holland. Queen Juliana of the Netherlands sent her thanks to Britain's Queen Elizabeth II.

TRUMAN BUDGET COST COUNTAINS $19,370,000

Adams County's share of the Truman-proposed federal budget, according to the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce, is $19,370,000 which figures indicate, is 22.1 times the amount of 1950 local tax collections, which were $878,000.

Pennsylvania's share of the Truman budget was computed by the state chamber on the basis of a statistically-weighted formula which shows that Pennsylvanians pay 7.47 per cent of the cost of running the Federal Government. Adams County's share was computed on the basis of population, retail sales, salaries and wages paid and market value of taxable real estate.

The assessed valuation of the county's taxable real estate in 1951 is shown as $17,968,000.

Budget Slash Saves Taxes

For each billion dollars which Congress succeeds in cutting from the $78.6 billion federal spending program proposed by Truman for the fiscal year 1954, Pennsylvanians eventually would save about $75 million in federal tax liability, the state chamber says.

If the Truman budget is not cut, Pennsylvania's share of the cost will amount to $5,870,449,000, to be paid sooner or later in direct and hidden taxes, the chamber contends. Mr. Truman submitted the budget before leaving the White House.

The state chamber found that each billion dollars of federal spending costs taxpayers of this state $74.7 million — or, if unspent, saves them a like amount. The saving for this state if Congress slashes the Truman budget by $10.6 billion, as proposed by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, would amount to $791,820,000.

Pennsylvania's share of the Truman budget as submitted — $5,870,449,000 — is over 12 times the total amount of local taxes collected throughout Pennsylvania in 1950, says the survey. Local tax collections in that year, including real estate, personal property and special school and other state-authorized taxes, totaled $477,450,000, it asserts. The state's share of the Truman budget is approximately 60 per cent of the total 1951 assessed valuation of taxable real estate in Pennsylvania, according to the state chamber. Total real estate assessments, for county purposes, amounted to $9,849,180,000 in 1951.

Boats, Planes Battle Elements To Save 3,000 Isolated Folk

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (AP)—The death toll in Holland's disastrous floods reached 1,320 today. This brought the total in the low countries and Britain to 1,880.

The Dutch figure fell short, however, of the approximately 2,000 deaths which reliable, but unconfirmed, reports say the surging flood waters have caused since the week end.

And the end was not in sight. Four new breaks in the dike system, in Southwest Holland, posted a new peril for thousands of homeless flood victims stranded there.

Boats fought through heavy seas and planes bucked snow and winds in a race against time to get nearly 3,000 stranded persons off Schouwen-Duiveland before the next high tide late this afternoon.

REV. KNUTSEN IS LIONS' SPEAKER

Communism is a religion that is fanatically believed in by its members to a point where they are willing to give their lives to aid its spread and as such can only be met and defeated by an even stronger belief in Christianity and its principles, the Rev. Martin Knutsen, vicar of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church of Gettysburg, told the Fairfield Lions Club at their regular dinner meeting Tuesday evening in the Lutheran Parish House.

Pointing out that President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles had both recently stressed the need of "enlightened self-interest" as a foremost factor in the struggle between communistic countries and democracies, Rev. Mr. Knutsen went on to point out that the Christian faith offers the greatest opportunity for the development of such "enlightened self-interest" and stated that if the people of America are to combat successfully the communistic religion, it can only be done through the developing and spreading of Christianity.

He said that the Christian people can accomplish this in three ways:

1. By becoming a more "prayerful" people, pointing out that the praying man of today is considered unique whereas years ago it was the accepted thing.

2. People should attend church regularly and support and get to know the Christian religion thoroughly.

3. All church members should act as missionaries in spreading their belief and convincing their friends and neighbors of the truth of the Christian religion.

President John Reindollar presided at the meeting and introduced C. LeRoy Sheads as a new member of the club. He also introduced Robert Lott, Gettysburg R. D., a guest of Robert Reindollar. He first cited how parents feel about the schools and asked the question: "Is it enough for parents to get up in the morning and get their children off to school and then, in the evening, to have dinner prepared for them?" He believes that parents should be more interested than this in school activities. The PTA, he thinks, is the one agency which makes it possible to bring the parents into closer cooperation with the school and teacher. "At the same time," he said "it helps parents understand the working system of the school." The speaker also stressed home training of the children.

GHS Invades Shippensburg Friday Night; Junior High At Home With Greyhounds

Rocketed into one of the favorite roles for the second half title of the South Penn Basketball League as the result of their surprise victory over Carlisle here Tuesday evening, the Gettysburg High Warriors invade Shippensburg for a league encounter with the Greyhounds Friday evening.

Despite a 68-48 win over Shippensburg here in the first half, the Warriors are expected to have their hands full in their scrap on the small Shippensburg court.

While the Senior High lads are in Shippensburg, Coach Rogers Herr's Junior High basketballers will be host to the Greyhound Junior High dribblers. The locals will be gunning for their seventh win of the campaign.

Shippensburg officials have sent word that due to the very limited seating capacity of the school gymnasium, doors will be closed as soon as all seats are filled. There will be no standing permitted by order of fire officials as a means of eliminating hazards. Fans planning to go to the game are urged to do so early or they may fail to gain admittance to the gymnasium.

Inconsistency has been one of the traits of the local cagers this season. At times they have shown as well as any other team in the league and at other time they have been perhaps as poor as any. Against Carlisle they had one of their better nights. If the entire squad can continue to play scrappy ball in remaining contests they could go all the way.

The Greyhounds are capable of some good basketball and a lapse by the Warriors could be fatal.

Big Game Tonight
A headliner in the second half race will be staged tonight when Chambersburg plays at Hershey. Chambersburg eked through to a 46-45 decision in the first half at Chambersburg and is likely to find the going tougher in the Chocolate town. Hershey has been picked in many quarters as the probable second half title.

The two remaining league games slated for Friday will find Mechanicsburg at Carlisle, and Hanover at Waynesboro.

County League Games
The usual Friday night boys-girls double-headers are carded in the Adams County circuit.

Unbeaten Boiling Springs is expected to keep its streak intact at New Oxford while second-place Biglerville should keep pace when it entertains Fairfield. Newville's improving outfit is favored over Littlestown in the game at Newville with East Berlin the likely winner at York Springs.

BIGLER JUNIOR HIGH TRIUMPHS

The Biglerville Junior High basketball team won its fourth decision in six starts by defeating East Berlin 29-17 on the latter's floor Wednesday afternoon.

The Cannons will next play at York Springs Friday afternoon, February 13.

PITTSBURGH (P)—Branch Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, home after several days of negotiating to trade home run slugger Ralph Kiner, says he hasn't received a satisfactory offer.

Rickey, who held talks with the Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Boston Braves, said:

"I am after playing strength. The clubs which would like to obtain Kiner have only added money to their propositions. I have not given up on the idea (of a trade) at all but right now I can only sit back and await further developments from the other parties."

Rickey Can't Get Good Kiner Trade

PITTSBURGH (P)—Branch Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, home after several days of negotiating to trade home run slugger Ralph Kiner, says he hasn't received a satisfactory offer.

YANKEES SLOW TO SIGN UP FOR 1953 SEASON

NEW YORK (P)—The New York Yankees have close to a million dollars they're ready to ladle out in salaries—the largest payroll pot in baseball history—but no club is having more trouble getting diamond employees under contract.

The players' theme song seems to be: "No, gimme more."

"You don't realize what a problem it is to sign up a ball club that has won four straight world championships," said George Weiss, general manager of the Yankee empire and the man with the chronic winter headache.

Berra, McDougald Sign

"I don't think there's an organized holdout campaign or anything like that. Each of these fellows figures he was greatly instrumental in our success and he wants his reward on the pay check."

The Yankees have signed only two of their regulars for the 1953 season while most other clubs are announcing signings in clusters.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, the Yankees' victims in the last World Series, for instance, have signed all of their players.

The two regulars who have come to terms are catcher Yogi Berra, who autographed a contract for a reported $40,000, a $5,000 raise, and infielder Gil McDougald, who signed for what's believed to be around $20,000.

Reynolds Holds Out

Allie (Big Chief) Reynolds, who has had two tremendous years with the world champions, failed to get any satisfaction in his second conference with Roy Hamey, assistant general manager, who does the Yankee negotiating.

The Oklahoma City right-hander, who had a 20-8 record last season and 17-8 the year before, is said to be demanding at least a $7,000 raise over the $35,000 he collected in 1952. That would be approximately the salary paid Vic Raschi, who also is asking a hike for his 16 pitching victories last season.

The Yankees must come to terms with lefty Ed Lopat, a reliable veteran; Whitey Ford, who is returning from the service; Bob Kuzava, Tom Morgan and others.

Impressive Unsigned List

Also yet to be dealt with across the bargaining table are young Mickey Martine, the 1952 World Series hero, and his outfield mates, Hank Bauer and Gene Woodling; big John Mize, the slugging first baseman; infielders Phil Rizzuto, Billy Martin and others.

Reports have the 40-year-old Mize balking at a 20 per cent slash in salary. He is insisting on a carbon copy of his last season's contract, which called for $20,000.

"I can't, for obvious reasons, say what our payroll will be this year," said Weiss. "But it's tremendous. You can safely say it's the largest we've ever had."

Casey Has Signed

A few years ago a congressional committee revealed the Yankees' payroll as $660,000. It's known the figure has grown substantially every year since, despite the departure of $90,000-a-year Joe DiMaggio.

Manager Casey Stengel signed a contract before he left for California in the fall. He hinted his salary was "close to $100,000."

TIE TILT CAUSES DEADLOCK FOR ICE LOOP LEAD

By The Associated Press
The Cleveland Barons were deadlocked for first place with the Pittsburgh Hornets today as a result of one of the American Hockey League's rare tie games.

The Barons and the Syracuse Warriors battled to a 4-4 overtime stalemate last night to put Cleveland even with the Hornets at 54 points apiece. It was only the sixth tie game in the AHL this season.

The Hershey Bears broke a five game losing streak by defeating the St. Louis Flyers, 4-2, in the only other league play.

Makes 51 Saves

Cleveland led, 4-3, going into the third period but Bill Gooden of Syracuse scored at 1:28 to knot the count. Cleveland goalie Johnny Bower came up with 51 saves to only 19 for Gordie Bell, the Warriors' netminder.

Two goals by Sam Bettio sparked Hershey to its victory over St. Louis. Bettio tallied in the second and third periods as the Bears overcame a one-goal flyer advantage. Arnie Kullman and Dunc Fisher registered Hershey's other scores while Mott McLean hit the twines for both of St. Louis' tallies. The win moved Hershey into undisputed possession of third place.

The Cleveland Barons were deadlocked for first place with the Pittsburgh Hornets today as a result of one of the American Hockey League's rare tie games.

The Barons and the Syracuse Warriors battled to a 4-4 overtime stalemate last night to put Cleveland even with the Hornets at 54 points apiece. It was only the sixth tie game in the AHL this season.

The Hershey Bears broke a five game losing streak by defeating the St. Louis Flyers, 4-2, in the only other league play.

Makes 51 Saves

Cleveland led, 4-3, going into the third period but Bill Gooden of Syracuse scored at 1:28 to knot the count. Cleveland goalie Johnny Bower came up with 51 saves to only 19 for Gordie Bell, the Warriors' netminder.

Two goals by Sam Bettio sparked Hershey to its victory over St. Louis. Bettio tallied in the second and third periods as the Bears overcame a one-goal flyer advantage. Arnie Kullman and Dunc Fisher registered Hershey's other scores while Mott McLean hit the twines for both of St. Louis' tallies. The win moved Hershey into undisputed possession of third place.

Dutchmen Put On Whirlwind Finish To Nip Bullets 94-84 For 11th Consecutive Victory

Lebanon Valley's undefeated basketball team put on a whirlwind finish in the last two minutes of play to defeat the Gettysburg College Bullets 94-84 here Wednesday evening for its 11th straight victory of the season.

The game was a spine-tingler until the closing moments and was played before the largest crowd of the season. Approximately 1,700 fans jammed the gym before doors were closed and others turned away.

Lou Sorrentino, the Dutchman who nearly upset the Bullet football team with his brilliant passing last fall, provided the spark that carried the visitors to their triumph, pouring 18 points through the meshes in the last half.

It was a nip and tuck battle all the way as the score was deadlocked no less than 14 times and the lead exchanged hands time and again.

Gettysburg opened fast and ran up an 8-3 lead but goals by Finkelstein and Vought and a foul by the latter knotted it at 8-8. Three more times during the quarter the score was deadlocked as both teams put on brilliant shooting exhibitions and when the torrid period ended Gettysburg led 25-24.

Deadlocked At Half

The second period followed the same pattern as the first as the teams battled furiously with neither able to pull away from the other. After about four minutes of the round the Bullets led 34-29, Lebanon Valley came right back and went ahead 38-37 on goals by Vought and Land. Seconds later Lang secured one of his two goals of the evening and a two-point lead by Bob Pizolato made it 41-38. A foul by Vought was followed by a set by Habbab. After Vought looped a foul Miller netted a free toss in the closing seconds to make it 42-42 at intermission.

The lead exchanged hands six times and was tied on four occasions during the hectic third period, the biggest lead for either team being Gettysburg's margin of 54-50 after six minutes. Sorrentino carried the Dutchmen with three goals and six of six fouls tried with Bill Snyder dropping through four goals for the Bullets and Pizolato contributing three plus a pair of fouls. Going into the final frame the Bream-men led 64-61.

The Dutchmen caught the Bullets at 68-68. With four minutes elapsed, Johnny Habbab landed two straight long sets to break a 70-70 deadlock. Miller and Snyder exchanged goals. Finkelstein added a point via a foul for the invaders and then Snyder came through with a goal to make it 78-73 with a little over four minutes of play remaining.

Valley Closes Fast

A layup by Miller following a steal and another quick goal by Sorrentino made it 78-77 with 3:45 remaining. Land and Snyder exchanged goals before Vought looped a long toss. Keller connected to put Gettysburg on top 82-81 for the last time. Miller tied it with a foul before Land netted a goal with two minutes to go. When Sorrentino netted two free tosses to make it 86-82 and but a minute and half remaining the writing was on the wall. The speedy visitors stole Bullet passes consistently and turned them into goals in the waning moments, completely routing the Bullets.

Without a doubt Lebanon Valley is the best team to appear here this season. They showed plenty of speed and finesse and maintained their reputation for accurate tossing, landing 35 goals on but 77 shots. The Bullets also turned in a better-than-average shooting mark with 34 in 85 tries.

Snyder, Pizolato and Habbab led the Bullets attack with Les Eckman contributing 11 until forced out via fouls while his relief man, Jack Keller, came through with five goals in the final half.

The Bullets, now 8-5 for the campaign, journey to Allentown Saturday to meet powerful Muhlenberg.

GAME BODY HAS $400,000 FIXED FOR DOE SEASON

HARRISBURG (P)—The State Game Commission said Wednesday it included a $400,000 budget item for receipts from special license fees contingent on a possible decision that antlerless deer seasons will be called for 1953 and 1954.

Executive Director Thomas R. Frye replied to criticism in the Legislature on Tuesday that the commission apparently has made up its mind on holding these special seasons because the antlerless deer license fees were included in the Commonwealth's budget.

"Of course, the commission has not fixed an antlerless deer season," he told a newsman. "A decision on whether to do so won't be made until July. The budget item in question was included on a contingency basis."

Rep. Harris G. Breth (R-Clearfield) posed the question on the House floor on Tuesday in urging that the Game Commission give up the idea of permitting an open season on does and young bucks for at least two years or more.

Small Bucks Killed

"Unrelenting and continued antlerless deer seasons the past four years has meant that thousands of little button bucks have been killed during antlerless deer seasons," said Breth.

Rep. Francis P. Worley (R-Adams) introduced a bill Monday to ban antlerless deer shooting until 1955.

Rep. Wilmer W. Waterhouse (R-Erie) also took the floor to criticize as impractical a game commission plan for an aerial survey to determine the deer population in Pennsylvania.

"No matter what the commission found, 99 per cent of the sportsmen would say there aren't enough antlerless deer in Pennsylvania," said Waterhouse.

Frye said a decision on antlerless deer hunting won't be made until after a spring checkup on winter kill, forage problems and a deer census estimate.

Hunters pay a $3 year hunting license fee. Last year, they had to pay an additional $1.15 to hunt antlerless deer during a special season.

The commission already has tentatively fixed the buck deer season for Nov. 30-Dec. 12.

Bob Hall Returns Signed Contract

PITTSBURGH (P)—Bob Hall, 29-year-old right-handed pitcher drafted from Seattle in the Pacific Coast League, returned his signed 1953 contract today to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Hall posted a 13-8 mark for Seattle last year after being obtained from Sacramento where he won one and lost three. His signing brings to 16 the number of Pirates in the fold.

This is Hall's second crack at the majors. He won six and lost six over a two year span with the Boston Braves in 1949-50.

"BOBO" OLSON QUITS TOURNEY FOR RING TITLE

BOSTON (P)—The scramble for Sugar Ray Robinson's vacated middleweight title took on the aspects of a soap opera today with Carl (Bobo) Olson's withdrawal from an elimination tournament designed to find a new champion.

The Hawaiian boxer is the No. 1 American contender, but last night he said he wants no part of the tourney—arranged by the powerful National Boxing Association and the New York State Athletic Commission.

Olson meets 21-year-old Norman Hayes of Boston Saturday night in a nationally-televised (ABC 9 p.m. EST) 10-rounder in Boston Garden. New England will be blacked out of the audience.

Both Hayes and Olson were on the list of American contenders slated for the NBA's elimination series and this fight was to have been the second clash of that series.

Opener On Midway

The opener is tomorrow night's Madison Square Garden bout between Pierre Langlois of France and Rocky Castellani of Luzerne, Pa. The victor was to have met Ernie (The Rock) Durando of Bayonne, N. J., with that winner taking on the Hayes-Olson winner.

A flock of other fighters also are on the elimination list.

Former Champion Randy Turpin of England France's Charles Humez are in the European phase of the eliminations.

But Olson—the "leading man" of the drama and practically the only top contender not controlled by the International Boxing Club—won't even try to make the division limit of 160 pounds for Hayes. That automatically rules him out of the tournament.

MANY SEEKING FEDERAL JUDGE APPOINTMENT

By J. FRANK TRAGLE

WASHINGTON (P)—Pretty soon it will be "standing room only" for Pennsylvania lawyers who are aspiring to become federal judges.

Aides to Sens. Martin and Duff, Pennsylvania Republicans, said scores of persons have been recommended and that new names are being added to the bulging list almost daily.

Letters in support of some candidates arrive by the bundle.

There are three U. S. District judgeships vacancies in the state, two in the East and one in the West. A district judge is appointed by the President for a life term. The salary is $15,000 a year.

One aide estimated that every county in Western Pennsylvania has at least one candidate.

Dr. O. D. Coble Praises Men Of Army; Tells Ministerium History Of Army Chaplaincy

The Army Chaplain Corps, like the army itself, has had its ups and downs, according to the Rev. Dr. O. D. Coble, pastor of the Bendersville Lutheran church, since the first chaplains, Franciscan friars, Jesuit priests or Anglican clerics, appeared during the Colonial-Indian wars.

Dr. Coble related some of his experiences as a chaplain during World War II, in a talk before the February meeting of the Adams County Ministerium Monday, in which he also traced the history and development of the Chaplain Corps.

"I deem it a high honor to have served with the magnificent officer and enlisted personnel, which in the main composed the armed forces of the United States during World War II. I met there as fine a group as I'll ever know. The Armed Forces were not perfect, or without a mistake or any error, but their members were human and understandable, as free men ought to be."

Dr. Coble pointed out that "the civilian population at home or abroad determines the moral and spiritual level of the army," and declared that "a soldier accustomed to playing fast and loose with life as a civilian will very likely continue to do so when inducted into the service, with its numerous pitfalls and ever present temptations."

"Unfortunately," Dr. Coble continued, "a lie often gains more attention than the truth. The lie, unfortunately makes the headlines. Just let one fellow get out of step and he stands out like a sore thumb, while 100 other decent lads go unnoticed."

"There are those who hate the army so much, or are so filled with bitterness and resentment that they can see no good in either the army chaplain or his work. Some pastors even tell members of their congregation who may be called into service that 'It's too bad, you are in for it; the army is no good; try to make the best of it.' All of which makes it hard for the men in the service."

"I feel that we have a mighty fine president in Dwight Eisenhower, who is also a great soldier, and there are a lot of other fine officers and enlisted men in our Armed Forces." In tracing the history of the Chaplain Corps, Dr. Coble said there were no chaplains from the settlement of St. Augustine in 1565 until 200 years later. "George Washington appealed to Gov. Dinwiddie of Virginia for a 'gentleman of sober and serious mind.' The Rev. William Emerson was actually the first chaplain to report to the militia; as early as April 19, 1775 he was present at the Battle of Concord."

"The pulpit of the church and the parsonage soon became message centers of the army. It was from the parsonage that Dr. Warren sent Paul Revere on his famous ride, April 18, 1775."

"About this time two events occurred which merit mention. On May 2, 1775, General Ward introduced the formation for chaplain services, and on May 11, 1783, Gen. Washington commended Chaplain John Rodgers for distributing the Bible to the troops."

"Continental chaplains first received the pay of a captain, $20 a month. Both the pay and uniform of the chaplain were a matter of uncertainty until rather recent times, when he was given the same pay and grade of any other officer."

"September 20, 1776, is the official birthday of the chaplaincy as Article 4 of the Original Rules and Acts of War was adopted at that time. However by Dec. 3, 1783, all chaplains had gone from the Army—George Washington resigned the next day."

"Jan. 3, 1784, Gen. Knox reduced the Army to 700 men. There were no chaplains. The country, possibly aroused by rabble agitators, caused Congress to state June 2, 1784, 'Standing armies in the time of peace are inconsistent with the principles of Republican Government, dangerous to the liberties of free people, and generally converted into destructive despotism.'"

"After that blast the army was further reduced to just 80 men, 25 at Fort Pitt and an additional 55 to guard West Point. There was no officer above the rank of captain and of course there were no chaplains."

"In a few years the strength of the army was increased to 595 men, forming a regiment. Congress once more was moved to declare itself, 'in case the President of the United States should deem the employment of a chaplain essential to the public interest, that he be, and is hereby empowered by and with the consent of Senate, to appoint same accordingly.' If appointed the chaplain would receive $50 a month, including pay, rations and forage."

"While Chaplain Emerson is usually spoken of as the first chaplain in the militia, the Rev. John Hurt, an Episcopalian from Virginia, was the first army chaplain. Since he never received any pay he was given a grant of 7,000 acres in Virginia. He resigned April 30, 1794."

"Meanwhile attempts were made in 1798, 1808, and 1813 to clarify the status of the chaplain. The War of 1812 destroyed all records pertaining to chaplains up to that time. The Act of 1813 authorized one chaplain to a brigade with the pay of a major, and one year later, a chaplain to a regiment with the grade of a captain."

"Learn years followed from 1818 to 1836. There was but one chaplain and he was at West Point. A curious Act of April 10, 1806, did come to light. It provided penalties for chaplains 'Absent without Leave!'

"Army Regulations in 1820 provided for chaplains' quarters, allowances for fuel, transportation and a uniform with cockades only. Post chaplains were authorized in 1838. He was carefully selected by the Council of Administration. Here the chaplain also served as schoolmaster."

"Shortly thereafter, the anti-chaplain movement occurred. It was charged that chaplains sought appointment and passed out cigars; that they were little more than clerks which had some truth to it; that the chaplain was unpopular because it was felt that he was incapable of doing a man's work, and that some chaplains were on 'leave of absence for years.'"

"Painfully, slowly, the duties of the chaplain emerged. No other officer served in so many different and unrelated capacities. In time he was post exchange officer, athletic officer, recreation officer, post librarian, mess officer, finance officer, common carrier, expressman, postboy, undertaker, banker, ward master, hospital steward, surgeon. Not until World War I was he accepted as a clergyman and to this day performs those services peculiar to his task. He is no longer a public utility."

"The Act of 1847 provided chaplains for the troops in Mexico at the order of the secretary of state. Catholic chaplains first made their appearance in the U. S. Army in the campaign at Quebec. However, Benedict Arnold had urged their use in the campaign at Quebec. Franciscan friars and Jesuit priests had appeared earlier in the Colonial Wars."

"Generally all chaplains before the Civil War were Protestant. Eighty chaplains were appointed between April 2, 1813, and March 6, 1856; 43 of these were Episcopalians with the next largest group being Presbyterians."

"With the calling of 500,000 troops into service July 22, 1861, one chaplain was assigned to each regiment. The Act of April 8, 1864, created the rank of chaplain without command and also introduced the monthly report, in use to this day. The act of Aug. 3, 1861, required that a chaplain be ordained and endorsed by his denomination, a present requirement."

"The Rt. Rev. Charles Henry Brent was senior chaplain in the American Expeditionary Forces from 1917 to 1919. He was first called 'Chief of Chaplains.' The Act of 1920 created the office 'Chief of Chaplains' with the rank of colonel."

In 1944 the chief was given the grade of major general. Since then eight men have served as Chief of Chaplains, Axton, Easterbrook, Yeates, Brasted, Arnold, Miller, Parker and Bennett."

"In World War II 77 chaplains were killed in battle, five died of natural causes, five died in Japanese prison camps. In all 1,512 chaplains received 1,991 decorations, including 17 different kinds of awards."

RED MANNERS IN COURTROOM NOT SO NOISY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Communists' courtroom manners may not have improved but they seem a little less noisy than they used to be as batch after batch has been convicted of teaching conspiracy to overthrow the government by force.

There have been four trials of first and second-string Communist leaders since January, 1949. Forty-four have been convicted. The tactics of the first 11 convicted followed instructions laid down years ago.

They were jailed. And, since their conviction was upheld by the Supreme Court, the result may have had a quieting, or discouraging effect, on party members who went on trial later.

Booklet Becomes Scarce

In the early 1930s the International Labor Defense, which former Atty. Gen. Francis Biddle later called the "legal arm of the Communist party," issued a 31-page paper bound booklet which sold at the time for 5 cents.

It has become so hard to find now that it is a collector's item, selling for as much as $12. The cover shows a man in work clothes leaning over a judge's bench and holding him up by the scruff of his neck. The judge has a dagger and a blackjack tucked in his belt.

This booklet—the title on the cover is "Under Arrest! Workers' Self-Defense in the Courts"—tells "workers" what to do when picked up by the police.

So far as dealing with the police goes, the advice of the booklet can be summed up: "Tell 'em nothing." But it goes into quite a bit of detail on how to act when in court.

Use Court As Forum

For example: "Make the court your forum. Bring out the class issues at the trial. In most cases the judge and prosecutor will try to evade the class character of the case."

And it further advises: "If you are charged with teaching... overthrow of the government... then it is absolutely necessary for you to use the court for a clear and correct explanation of the economic and social views which you hold, of the facts of the class struggle as applied to your case."

Eugene Dennis, one of the top 11 leaders convicted in the first trial, apparently followed the advice of the booklet even to the title. He was his own defense counsel. The other 10 had lawyers.

Lawyers Are Sentenced

The trial of the 11, in Judge Harold R. Medina's Federal Court, took 39 weeks. Five lawyers in the case drew jail sentences, ranging from 30 days to six months, for contemptuous conduct toward Medina. The 11 leaders got penitentiary terms.

The Communists tried to turn the courtroom into a forum. Pro-Communists picketed outside, chanting. Heckled as probably no other judge in American history, Medina kept his temper.

He knew that it blew up the men before him, if convicted by the jury, might win a new trial because of his conduct. So he stayed calm although several times he left the bench until the wrangling died down.

The next trial—five Communist second-string leaders and a party lawyer—was in Baltimore but was much quieter and lasted only six weeks. The six were convicted April 1, 1952.

14 Are Convicted

Fourteen leading California Communists were convicted next after a trial that lasted six months in a Los Angeles court before U. S. Judge William C. Mathes. In spite of its long-drawn-out nature the judge commended the defense counsel for "care and quality of your work in this case." The jury

Actress June Haver Leaves Moviedom To Become A Nun

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress June Haver turned her back on moviedom's tinsel brilliance today to become a nun.

The 26-year-old blond dancing star, whose salary rose to $3,500 a week but whose career also brought her personal tragedy, ended months of rumors about her intentions by issuing a poignant statement last night.

Formal Statement

Without disclosing her whereabouts, nor where and when she will enter a convent, Miss Haver telephoned the statement to her studio and asked that it be distributed publicly. It said:

"To all my friends:

"Now that I am about to do something that some of you perhaps will find it difficult to understand, I have thought it well to make a public statement.

"I am going away to prepare myself, by several years of prayer and study, for something I have been contemplating for the past two years. I am determined to be a Sister of Charity, with the grace of God and the approval of His church, and to consecrate my life to the service of God in His sick and in His children.

"To do this will take more ability than I have. That is why I am going to prepare myself in a novitiate of work and prayer. If at the end of my two years of preparation, my religious superiors judge that I am able to do this, I shall consecrate myself by vow to this kind of life.

Sells Home, Ends Contract

"As far as I am concerned, I know what I want to do. But what I want must also be what God wants. May His will be done.

"You, my friends who have helped me so well in the past, I know will continue to help me with prayer, that I may always be generous in the service of God."

Miss Haver sold her home in the Chevy Chase section a year ago and recently auctioned her possessions, closed her apartment and moved in with her mother, Mrs. Marie Ottestad. She has terminated her nine-year association with 20th Century-Fox Studio, her most recent contract running to Feb. 20.

Eloped In '47

She finished her last picture, "The Girl Next Door," a musical comedy with Dan Dailey, last November and has done no movie work since. The picture is yet to be released.

Born June Stovenour in Rock Island, Ill., Miss Haver came to Beverly Hills, Calif., as a youngster. She sang with Ted Fio Rito's band, then went into the movies in 1944 at $75 a week. Her pictures included "Home in Indiana," "Three Little Girls in Blue," "Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady" and "The Dolly Sisters."

But as her movie star ascended, tragedy clouded her life. In 1947 she eloped with Jimmy Zito, swing band trumpeter. Later they were married in the Catholic church. But the marriage ended in divorce a few months later.

S. HANNAGAN, TOP PUBLICITY AGENT, DIES

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Steve Hannagan, the press agent who put the bathing beauty on America's front pages, died of a heart attack in a hotel here today. He had arrived in the Kenyan capital on Tuesday.

Born in Lafayette, Ind., 53 years ago, Hannagan at an early age became one of America's most colorful and famous publicity experts—the popularizer of Miami Beach, Sun Valley and the Indianapolis Speedway.

Among his clients, he numbered also a host of large industrial organizations, sports and entertainment figures.

Hannagan—he was christened Stephen Jerome but few people knew it—became a newspaper reporter on the Lafayette Morning Journal at 14. During his two years at Purdue University, he was the paper's city editor and wrote for metropolitan papers as well. When the Indianapolis Star offered him a job as sports writer, he quit college in 1919.

Musselman Company Prepares Statement On F.T.C. Charges

The C. H. Musselman Company, of Biglerville, has prepared a statement for fruit growers relative to the charges of "conspiring to fix prices" filed against the industry by the Federal Trade Commission.

The Gettysburg Times publishes the statement in full as a public service to its readers. The statement follows:

YOU ARE ON TRIAL
Some facts apple growers should know about the Federal Trade Commission charges against growers and processors.

Because growers operate their farms and orchards as individual enterprises it has been very hard for many to realize the real meaning of the Federal Trade Commission charges recently made. When the policeman says "Hey, you," it is natural to say "Who, me?" The answer is "Yes, you." In this case, too.

All members of Appalachian Apple Service are equally defendants with the various processors named, on charges of "conspiring to fix prices" — and "restraint of trade." The government means business, has a staff of able lawyers and an elaborate case has been developed in many hours of hearings. You, as an apple grower, are probably listed on Appalachian Apple Service membership or meeting or mailing lists.

A major part of the Government's case is a series of 500 or 600 exhibits, pages taken from Appalachian Apple Service reports, minutes and letters to membership. The voluminous testimony runs to thousands of pages. Legal and record costs for defendants are estimated at many thousands of dollars. Penalties could be severe. In short, Mr. Grower, it is a serious matter — and means all of us.

Prices Not Fixed
Do not be fooled by obvious facts that you know so well. Growers and processors do not fix prices — they rarely agree until a season is over — and sometimes not then. Buying apples is a keenly competitive business at all times. Values are fixed by many outside factors, other crops, the general business situation, the size of the crop, the quality of the crop.

Federal Inspection standards help to standardize values. But if one buyer, fresh fruit or processor, paid more than the others he would get all the apples. You know this — but that doesn't mean everybody knows it. The principles of free competitive American enterprise are not understood everywhere, and it is also true that at times and in certain industries there has been price fixing in restraint of trade.

Representative growers and processors have appeared as witnesses, including Fred Griest and Richard C. MacDonald; John A. Hauser, of the C. H. Musselman Company; Wilkie Hunt, of National Fruit Products; M. E. Knouse, of Knouse Foods Cooperative; Gordon Bowman, of the Bowman Company. These are among the witnesses who have given up valuable business time to spend hours or days on the witness stand.

Do Not Believe Charges
While The C. H. Musselman Company does not believe these government charges to be true and has joined in a general denial with representatives of Appalachian Apple Service and other processors it believes it is important for the individual apple grower to realize his personal stake in this matter. It is not just a processors' problem.

We cannot predict the outcome of the hearings, which correspond to a trial, nor what the final F. T. C. decision will be. We are always concerned for the well being and success of the growers who are our sources of supply.

John A. Hauser, president of The C. H. Musselman Company, made the following statement to Federal Trade Commission Examiner Frank Hier in response to a direct question.

"The C. H. Musselman Company is concerned with the grower. It is concerned with the supply for years to come. We want to give the grower as much as we can for his product because he has to stay in business for us to stay in business. The first stages of a market are a gamble, so one must be cautious. If later we make a profit we are glad to pay a part of the profit to the grower." (in form of voluntary extra payment). Quoted from The Gettysburg Times, January 6, 1953.

Informative Data
We urge apple growers and all other growers not to minimize the importance of these charges and hearings — no matter what the outcome. We should also ask ourselves (we grow apples too) how these charges came to be made.

ENVOY TO FRANCE
—C. Douglas Dillon, of Far Hills, N. J., a banker, has been named Ambassador to France by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, to succeed James C. Dunn.

What did we, growers or processors, do or say or publish that could lead to such misunderstanding? We know we are "not guilty as charged" but we don't want such happenings again. They cost too much and however educational or chastening they may be are a great loss in time and money and the general public which usually only sees the charges, not the details, takes a long time to forget them.

The above is presented as a service to growers purely as information of interest. We are concerned with growers' welfare and public understanding.

NEW PEACE TALK FROM CHINESE IS "OLD STUFF"

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Chinese Communists' latest suggestion for ending the war not only was not new, it had been rejected last December by the United Nations. Why, then, did they repeat it?

Perhaps for psychological reasons. President Eisenhower and his advisers seem to be strong believers in the usefulness of psychology in war. The Communists may have felt they'd give him a taste of his own medicine, but quick.

It was only last Monday that Eisenhower announced he would order the Seventh Fleet to let Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists attack the Chinese Communist mainland from Formosa.

Whether or not such a move will have any practical military effect, the mere announcement certainly had a psychological effect here and abroad.

Got World Attention
It got world-wide attention in spite of the fact that Chiang is in no better shape to make a big invasion now than he was before, and anyway he has been making small raids on the coast from nearby islands for more than a year.

But the reaction to the announcement was mixed. Some people, especially in this country, welcomed the news, having long wanted some positive action in the stalemate war and hoping this was only the first of a series of moves.

It certainly put the Communists in the position of wondering what Eisenhower might do next.

Still, some of this country's allies were concerned about the ultimate, but now unpredictable, results. While Eisenhower said he wants the fleet to let Chiang hit the mainland, he was silent on what the fleet would do if the Communists attacked Formosa, by air or water.

Might Widen War
Presumably, he'd tell the fleet to step in to protect Formosa. That might put us deeper in the war and even widen it. At any rate, there has been concern among America's allies, who want the war ended, not widened.

So the Communists, whose policy is to drive a wedge between this country and its allies if they can, may have felt, after watching the European reaction, that this was a good time to try.

For the Communists didn't simply repeat their old but unaccepted solution for ending the Korean fighting. They also warned this country against helping Chiang invade the China mainland.

They may have felt that, by coupling their cease-fire proposal with a warning of dangerous days ahead, they could jitter jittery American allies into a willingness to settle in Korea on Communist terms.

Old Red Propaganda
The Communists had nothing to lose, or so it seems on the face of it, by their proposal or their warning. At the least they make propaganda for themselves by once more talking cease-fire.

Around the world many people may fasten onto the phrase "cease-fire" — as a pleasant and welcome suggestion while over-

STATE PONDER SICK BENEFITS FOR EMPLOYEES

By LEONARD A. JUNG
HARRISBURG (AP)—The Fine administration today explored the possibility of introducing sickness benefits for some 3½ million workers in Pennsylvania.

Speaker Charles C. Smith, (R-Philadelphia) said the idea was still in the "talking stage" with nothing definite on a final decision.

Rep. Adam Bower (R-Northumberland) confirmed the disclosure. He said Gov. John S. Fine asked him to hold off on introduction of legislation to carry out the disability insurance benefits plan until the administration had completed a study of such a program.

Four states—New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island and California—already have disability benefits legislation.

The Pennsylvania plan, if finally adopted, is expected to incorporate the best features of those in the other states.

Some Labor Support
Earl C. Bohr, secretary-treasurer of the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, and Lester Thomas, legislative representative of the United Mine Workers, both endorsed the idea in a general way. Full labor support, however, is contingent on the exact provisions of any contemplated measure.

Bower said his plan was to operate the system in the same manner as unemployment compensation except that employees would bear all of the cost.

In Rhode Island, for example, looking, or forgetting, the strings attached to it.

The true talks in Korea have broken down because the United Nations has refused to send prisoners back to the Communists against their will. The Communists have said there can be no settlement unless all prisoners are returned, willingly or unwillingly.

Last December the U. N. General Assembly overwhelmingly upheld the United States' position: no cease-fire if it has to be obtained at the price of sending prisoners back to the Communists by force.

The Communists made their offer: a cease-fire right away and then a commission to work out the problem of prisoners. That kind of cease-fire, so far as the West was concerned, would mean argument over prisoners going on perhaps for years. The U. N. rejected the Communist offer.

The offer the Communists made last night was the same as the one the U. N. turned down in December.

the payroll deduction is one per cent from employees only. New Jersey deducts three-quarters of one per cent from employees and taxes employers the remaining one-quarter of one per cent.

New York requires a one-half of one per cent from employees up to 30 cents weekly.

Richard H. Wagner, administrative officer for the State Employment Security Bureau, said the plans of most other states follow the unemployment compensation law in determining benefits.

That would be Bower's idea, too. His plan would call for payment of from $10 to $30 a week for up to 26 weeks for participating employees who become so ill they can not work.

"In that way," said Bower, "workers can pay their rent and food bills if they are taken ill. They can't get that from Blue Cross or Blue Shield which pay only hospital and medical bills."

Eligibility Issue
Eligibility would be determined on the amount of wages earned by a worker in a specific year, filing claims weekly and, if he should become unemployed through no fault of his own, whether he has enough previous payroll deductions to qualify him for benefits.

In other states, a week's waiting period is required before a worker would be entitled to cash sickness benefits.

Employees who obtain workmen's compensation or occupational disability benefits because of work-connected injuries or illness would not be entitled to the disability money.

Plans in other states call for an employee to submit a doctor's certificate that he is ill. The state may also send its own doctor to examine the patient if there is any doubt about the certificate.

General Strickler Ill; Coming Home

FRANKFURT, Germany, (AP)—Maj. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler is confined at Frankfurt's 97th U. S. Army General Hospital with an illness of undisclosed nature and will be moved to the United States in the next few days, hospital officials announced today.

The former lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania was brought here from Rome, where he headed the U. S. Military Assistance and Advisory Group.

Hospital officials, who declined to disclose the nature of his illness, said he was scheduled to be transferred to Walter Reed Hospital at Washington, D. C., on an air evacuation flight yesterday but that the flight was delayed.

U. S. Air Force officials said that a plane will be available probably tomorrow or Saturday. The American Embassy at Rome said that Strickler's successor as MAAG head has not yet been named.

He and his brother operated Waltersdorff Furniture stores in Hanover, Middletown, Elizabethtown and Shippensburg. He was also a partner in the McEwen firm at Hagerstown.

Waltersdorff, who entered the army after his graduation from Gettysburg College in 1951 and is now stationed in Japan; two brothers, Dr. M. C. Waltersdorff, Washington, Pa., and John A. Waltersdorff, York, and three sisters, Mrs. Eugene Shorb, Hanover; Mrs. Norman Myers, Hanover; and Mrs. C. E. McEwen, Hagerstown.

50 Million Americans Must Pay Income Taxes This Year

(This is the first of six articles on how to make out your federal income tax return.)
By FRANCIS J. KELLY
The Associated Press
WASHINGTON — Everybody from baby to grandpa who has an income of $600 or more a year must file a federal income tax return.

Those 50 million persons have one consolation this year — the government hasn't changed the rules.

Since November 1, 1951 individual income tax rates have neither gone up nor (alas) down. The same exemptions and deductions you used last March apply when figuring the tax on your 1952 income.

The rate increase November 1, 1951, averaged about 11 per cent for most taxpayers. But since the boost was effective for only one-sixth of that year taxpayers will feel its full impact for the first time when paying their 1952 taxes.

Time Is Getting Short

Returns are due on or before March 15, which means you have less than six weeks to bush up on your arithmetic and dig out any needed receipts or cancelled checks.

The returns are sent to the director of internal revenue for the district in which you live. Your bank or post office can furnish you the address.

It's to your advantage to file a return even if you made less than $600 last year, in a job covered by the withholding tax. Such income is tax-free, and you'll get a refund check from the treasury. The sooner you file, the quicker the refund.

Self-employed persons who come under social security must file an income tax return if their self-employment brought them $400 or more last year. This tax, covering old age and survivors' insurance, is regarded as income tax. It is computed on separate schedule C, and entered on page 1 of Form 1040.

There are two key sets of figures in preparing your income tax return — your total income from all sources, and allowable deductions. These will determine the type of return form you use, and whether you itemize your non-business deductions or take advantage of the standard deduction of 10 per cent allowed on your income — subject to limitations discussed below.

The government allows deductions for most non-federal taxes, for losses from fire, storm or theft, for contributions to religious, charitable and educational organizations (but NOT to individuals), for interest paid, and for extraordinary medical and dental expenses, subject again to some limitations.

If your allowable deductions amount to more than 10 per cent of your income, it will pay you to itemize them. Otherwise, use the standard 10 per cent formula. This gives a single person, or a married couple filing a joint return, a $6,000 income, $850, and so on, up to a maximum of $1,000 on $10, income. Married persons filing separately are allowed a $500 deduction.

It is wise to make calculations both ways if you have had large medical expenses or have been making heavy interest payments on a mortgage.

Married couples must decide whether to make separate or joint returns. In most cases, joint returns are advantageous, because the "income splitting" provision of the present tax law often results in a smaller tax than would be due on separate returns.

When you make out your return, keep an exact copy for yourself. This will save you time and trouble if you later want to make a change or correction in the return.

Bake A Cake For Battered Old B29 Superfortress

OKINAWA (AP) — Crew members knew the battered old B29 Superfort "Command Decision" was coming back from her 100th mission over Red Korea — so they baked a cake for the men who kept her flying.

The cake was shared at a party celebrating: Nearly 1,000 hours in the air against the Reds... two million pounds of bombs rained on their war potential... and the ace status—rare for a B29—earned by shooting down five MIG jets. Command Decision, listed on the books as Superfort No. 7,657, returned today from a 12-plane strike on two Communist supply centers near Sariwon.

Big Holes In Her

The crew called the mission "un-eventful—the kind we'd like them all to be."

Among six ground crewmen who enjoyed the cake was A. 2C John Maisel, 5 Bunting Lane, Green Ridge, Pa.

He was with this bomb group on Oct. 27, 1951, the day Command Decision returned from the last regular daylight mission over North Korea.

Maisel recalled how he shuddered as he rushed up to the plane when it landed then.

"There were big holes punched in her, from the cannon shells of MIG-15 fighters," he remembers. "She had been to war that day—but I was real proud when I found out the other side of the story"... that Command Decision had become an ace.

More than 100 MIGs had swarmed around the daylight raiders, and gunners aboard the plane shot down four of them. Her gunners previously had destroyed one. For 27 months since then,

SAIGH'S STOCK BEING OFFERED

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette said today representatives of Fred Saigh, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, have offered Saigh's majority holdings in the National League club to a Pittsburgh syndicate for $4,250,000.

The Post-Gazette said the syndicate was headed by Charles Morris, prominent Pittsburgh realtor and president of the General Wrecking Co.

The paper said Morris declined to identify other members of the syndicate.

Saigh announced he would sell his baseball stock shortly after his recent sentencing to 15 months in prison for income tax evasion.

The Post-Gazette said it learned yesterday that the St. Louis brokerage firm of Frederick, Barton and Watson had approached the local syndicate through William Burroughs, a Pittsburgh real estate official.

IKE KNOCKS OUT DPA IN LIFTING PRICE CONTROLS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's quick-moving campaign to put the country back on a free-market economy was shifting today into a third phase—lifting of price controls on the things people buy.

His latest step, taken yesterday, was to knock out the Defense Production Administration, mainstay of the Truman administration's industrial controls program. The agency's functions were turned over to the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Dismissal notices went out the day before to all 2,000 or so employees of the federal boards which have controlled wages and salaries.

Prepared Decontrol Order
Soon and probably tomorrow, a price official said, an order now in preparation will decontrol prices of meat and a lot of other consumer items, such as canned fish and canned meat, furniture and small electrical ware.

Within two weeks, the official said, a follow-up order will call off controls on such major appliances as stoves, refrigerators and washing machines.

Price Administrator Joseph Freehill acknowledged that a decontrol order, including meat, will be touched on in a statement this week. He said it is part of Eisenhower's program, revealed publicly in his State of the Union message to Congress Monday, to "eliminate controls in an orderly manner and to terminate special agencies no longer needed for this purpose."

More Control To Go
Eisenhower said then he would seek the end of price-wage-materials controls, except for scarce items needed for defense, when authority for them expires April 30.

The decontrol order expected tomorrow would just about end price ceilings on wearing apparel. It would lift the lid on children's and infants' clothing at retail. Shoes and men's and women's clothing already are out from under controls.

Meat decontrol would be across the board, from stockyard to butcher, and would include veal, the only meat not now selling well below ceiling prices.

Ends Record Keeping
Lamb, mutton and pork prices are controlled now only at retail. The chief effect of meat decontrol would be to free dealers from much record-keeping as well as from requirements to cut and grade meats according to government specifications. Little change in prices was expected since retail meat prices are generally well below ceilings.

Al Brancato Will Manage Elmira Club

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP)—Al Brancato, 33, a former Philadelphia Athletics infielder, will be at the helm of the Elmira Pioneers of the Class A Eastern League in the coming baseball season.

Brancato's appointment was announced at the annual Elmira baseball dinner last night by Fresco Thompson, vice-president in charge of the Brooklyn Dodger farm system.

Brancato played third base for Fort Worth last year.

DULLES IN BOON TODAY ON TOUR OF WEST EUROPE

BONN, Germany (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles arrived today in the West German capital, the fourth stop of his European tour to spur the arming of German troops for Western defense.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Acting U. S. High Commissioner Samuel Reber greeted him and Mutual Security Administrator Harold Stassen as they arrived by plane from London at the snow-swept airport.

Dulles reportedly will tell Adenauer the U. S. expects concrete progress in 75 days toward creating the proposed European army.

In Accord With British
Informants said Dulles set this time limit in his London talks yesterday with Britain's Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and in previous conversations with French and Italian government chiefs.

In a written statement given to reporters at the airport, Dulles said the Americans and the British "are in accord as to our basic aims of peace, security and economic well being and stability."

"As regards the means of attaining the goal," he continued, "our differences of opinion are very minor as compared with the large area of agreement. We leave confident that our two governments will, as in the past, work together in cordial co-operation."

As in his Paris and Rome talks, Dulles reportedly made it clear to the British that unless progress is made on the six-nation army project within the 75 days, the U. S. Congress may refuse to pour any more aid billions into this part of the world.

REJECT NEW RED DEMANDS FOR WAR'S END AS "OLD STUFF"

TOKYO (AP)—Red China Wednesday warned the U. S. to accept Communist terms for peace in Korea or face a fight to the finish along the bleak battlefield.

In a direct challenge to U. S. President Eisenhower's new administration, Red Premier Chou En-lai demanded unconditional resumption of truce talks at Panmunjom, an immediate cease-fire and an 11-power political conference to settle the thorny question of war prisoners.

American officials immediately rejected the broadcast threat as "old stuff." They said it was the same proposal advanced by Russia in the U. N. last December and voted down, 40-5.

Three Conditions
These are the conditions laid down by Red China's No. 2 leader in a broadcast over Peiping radio:

1. "If the U. S. has the will and desire for peace in Korea she should unconditionally resume talks at Panmunjom."
2. Red China and North Korea "are ready for an immediate cease-fire on the basis of agreement already reached at Panmunjom."

3. "Thereafter we are prepared to discuss the question of prisoners of war at an 11-power political conference."

Then Chou hurled this belligerent challenge:

"If the new American administration has no intention to do so and continues to adopt policies of the Truman administration in Korea and intends to further enlarge and extend the Korean War, we are thoroughly prepared to fight it out with the aggressors to the last."

Belligerent Challenge
Allied negotiators, fed up with 15 months of fruitless wrangling, walked out of the Panmunjom talks Oct. 8. They said they would return only if the Communists agreed to one of several U. N. proposals or came up with something new.

The Communists want back all of the 122,658 POWs held by the U. N. The Allies have agreed to send back only the 83,000 willing to return.

Bayar said Truman should receive the award for his "invaluable services to the cause of peace and fraternity among nations."

SUB-CHAIRMAN SPLITS WITH CHESTERMAN'S MILK REPORT

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP)—R. N. Benjamin, Harrisburg, chairman of a subcommittee of the Chesterman Committee, disagreed with the full unit Wednesday on a recommendation that the State Milk Control Commission be abolished.

Benjamin, who headed a six-man "task force" which studied operations of the commission, said the agency should not only be continued "but strengthened."

The full Chesterman Committee earlier in the week recommended wiping out the Milk Control Commission and transfer its functions to the State Agriculture Department.

Obviously Angry
Benjamin, obviously angry at the full Chesterman Committee report, made public his subcommittee's recommendation, a precedent in the handling of news emanating from the Chesterman Committee.

The Chesterman Committee, headed by Francis J. Chesterman, Philadelphia, was named by Gov. John S. Fine last year to study possible economies in government. "In fairness to everyone concerned," Benjamin said, "I think it is necessary to reveal some truths our task force uncovered in our investigation of the Milk Control Commission."

More Criticism
The Chesterman Committee report also came in for criticism from Chairman Joab K. Mahood, of the Milk Control Commission. Mahood said the Chesterman group failed to note that "Pennsylvania's dairy farmers are among the highest paid in the nation and that our consumer prices are among the lowest in the East" under the commission's supervision.

Fears Federal Invasion
The task force report to the full Chesterman Committee added that the commission brought about $653,000 in returns to producers for under-payments or delinquent payments by milk dealers.

Benjamin told a newsman that if the Milk Control Commission were wiped out, the federal government would step into milk control regulations throughout the state.

If federal orders had applied to Pennsylvania for the five years ending 1951, Benjamin said, Pennsylvania consumers would have paid 6 1/2 million dollars more for their milk and Pennsylvania farmers would have received 70 millions less for their products.

Tornadoes are especially common and violent in the Mississippi Valley, but are known in other places such as Australia and Europe.

Supervisors May Join In Rail Suit

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors may take a hand in the pending 250 million dollar suit brought by truckers against railroads serving the Northeastern part of the U. S.

George V. Potts, executive committee chairman, said Tuesday at the close of the association's annual convention that his group agreed to hire an attorney with a view of entering the suit.

"In their suit," Potts said, "the truckers charged that 'corrupt officials' of the association influenced defeat of higher truck weight limits in Pennsylvania because they were in alliance with the railroads."

Potts said the alignment was a "case of mutual interest" and that the association is proud of its share in helping defeat higher weight legislation.

PARTY HARMONY AND ECONOMY ARE IKE'S GOAL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower steered his spanking new administration on a course of party harmony and hoped-for government economy today.

Entering his third week in the White House, Eisenhower: 1. Displayed a willingness to go more than halfway to "get along" with GOP congressional leaders and to keep close personal ties with the men who will translate his programs into action through legislation.

2. Moved to lop off an unestimated number of government jobs and to squeeze down the government's huge construction program initiated by the Democrats to those projects which can be classified as "clearly essential."

The President evidently got off to a good start on Tuesday toward the first of these objectives when he had 18 Senate GOP leaders in for a luncheon which senators insisted was all social and no business.

Today he will entertain Republican House leaders at a similar luncheon.

The economy move came with suddenness late on Tuesday when a White House statement disclosed the virtual freeze on new hiring, new construction and new programs while the 1954 budget is being revised.

There were bald words saying: "It is the policy to achieve a progressive reduction of government personnel."

Both actions taken were in line with Eisenhower's campaign pledges that he would work with party leaders in formulating policy and that he would have a "frugal" administration.

20 co-operating Protestant denominations of Pennsylvania resolved "firm opposition to any and all efforts to legalize gambling in any form." The resolution read, in part, "the citizens of Pennsylvania have never had to lower their moral standards to the level of the common gambler in order to provide operating expenses for the Commonwealth." Bills calling for legalization of parimutuel betting, with the state taking a percentage of the revenue, were introduced in the General Assembly this week. The council has opposed similar bills in previous years. The council voted to hold next year's meeting at Lancaster but did not set the specific dates.
